

Question and Answer

Question 1: In a previous article you state that being born again, and being saved, as 2 different events. But aren't we born again when we are saved?

Answer: To be born again requires the “indwelling” of the Holy Spirit, and God gives His Holy Spirit to those who “obey Him”; Ma'aseh (Acts) 5:32. We are “baptized” in the Holy Spirit upon being saved, but obedience to God is something learned over time. Likewise, obedience to the theology and doctrines of your local denomination is not obedience to God, but obedience to man's version of obedience to God.

Obedience to God comes when we have determined in our heart to follow the Truth of God no matter where it takes us, no matter the consequences, and no matter how many people become upset with us or disapprove of us for not joining them in their compromising man-made traditions and life choices.

Those who make it to this point and choose to ascend upward above man's version of obedience to God – God “gives” His Holy Spirit too. That is, these are they who become “born again”. Likewise, a person's “born again” experience may take place years after they were immersed (baptized) in the Spirit at the time of their salvation.

The “turning point” when reached is at the entry of the narrow gate that takes one onto the 5th Vertical Plane of ascension and causes one to become “grafted in” to Israel as a fellow citizen and heir to the promises. Those who fail to ascend above man-made denominational traditions and theology are still saved, but not as “fellow citizens and heirs of the promises”, but as saved Gentiles; Mattit'yahu (Matthew) 25:31-46; Revelation 21:24.

Which one do you want to be?

Question 2: You have some teachings that are very different from anything I have ever heard – like you teaching on ascending and other things. Who do you learn these things from?

Answer: All my teachings are original material resulting from my studies, received in dreams and visions, or imprinted upon my spirit (with the exception of my interpretations of prophecy, which though many times original, is only my best educated guess, and therefore subject to potential for misinterpretation).

As such, I do not watch You-tube or things like this for my information, and I rarely pass along any materials from others, especially You-tubes, as when I go to verify the information presented in them, I often find the alleged facts presented in You-tube presentations to unverifiable, and sometimes even entirely fabricated.

There are 3 types of people. Originators (creators and Innovators who come up with original ideas, inventions, writings, and innovations), Relays (people who pass along other people's ideas, inventions, writings, and innovations), and Receivers (those who feed and live off of, or otherwise benefit from, other people's ideas, inventions, writings, and innovations). All my materials are original, or if adopted, only adopted and integrated as a secondary witness to Scripture.
