1 Corinthians 15:20-28

Yeshua the First Fruits to Restore all things to the Father

1 Corinthians 15:20-28

15:20 But now Messiah has risen from the dead, and has become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep (died).

15:21 For since through one man death came into the world, then by one man also came the promise of resurrection from the dead.

15:22 For as in Adam all die, even so shall all those in Messiah be brought back to life.

15:23 But each one in his own order. First, Messiah as the first fruits, and then afterward, those who belong to Messiah at His coming.

15:24 And then shall come the end when Yeshua shall deliver the kingdom to יהוה the Father after He has put an end to all rule, authority, and power.

15:25 For Yeshua must reign until He has put all enemies under His feet.

15:26 With the last enemy being destroyed being death itself.

15:27 As it is written, "You have put all things under His feet". And when God says, "all things are put under Him" it is evident that He is referring to somebody other than Himself.

15:28 And so when all things have been brought back into submission to the Father, then the Son Himself will also hand His authority back over to the Father who gave Him His authority, so that in the end the Father's authority will reign supreme over everything, everywhere.
