The 4 Horses of Revelation

Revelation 6:1-8

The White Horse: This represents the false religion of the Catholic Church that is seeking to unite all religions under one umbrella through the ecumenical movement. It is headed by the Pope who dresses in white and at times wears a crown, rides in the white "Pope Mobile", lives in a white mansion, and is represented by a white flag. He has a bow but no arrows because he goes out to make war through subterfuge and without having to fire a single arrow.

The Red Horse: This represents Communism which makes war against its own citizens in order to establish absolute power over its populace. It is represented by a red flag which no doubt represents all of the blood it has shed of its own citizens in order to gain and maintain power over its populace. Various dictators through the 20th century through various socialist and communist policies have murdered hundreds of millions of its citizens within their own borders and citizens of neighboring countries.

The Black Horse: This represents Capitalism which essentially fuels the economies of the world and controls the money supply. Wherever people are free, capitalism is able to prosper, but because it naturally ties in to some degree with all other economies to fuel or be fueled by them, it also has the ability to crash all economies if it falters. Because this Black Horse ends up creating hyper inflation throughout the world, we know that the Capitalistic economies of the world are going to someday crash. And because this horse is represented by scales, we know a crash of the American economy will be at the heart of this as Wall Street is not only represented by a black flag, but that the American free trade agreement initially began with NAFTA (though now under the USMCA), was initially represented by a pair of scales as described in Revelation.

The Pale Green Horse: Often translated simply as "pale" horse, represents Islam that is represented by the green flag, kills with the sword, has dominion over one fourth of the earth's inhabitants, and death and Hell follow it wherever it goes.

These 4 horses are the 4 systems of world view that dominate the earth in the end times and that are warring against each other for world dominion. It is interesting to note that the invasion of America that we see going on today involves an attack on us (The Black Horse) by the other 3 systems (The White, Red, and Pale Green Horses), with the White Horse leading the ecumenical movement via invasion of American churches, the Red Horse invading the government via people like Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Shumer (Russian agents), and the Pale Green Horse invading the populace through open borders, sanctuary cities, and illegal voting (done under cover of mail in ballots). Should they succeed in taking over America, the economy will crash and cause hyper-inflation to take over the earth like a virus.
