

War in America, It is Here. It has Arrived.

How to Interpret the Lingo of the Liberal Narrative.

The words "We", "I", and "our" in the following statements refer to Nancy Pelosi, Chuck Schumer, Adam Schiff, Joe Biden, Hillary Clinton, Obama, the blue state governors and blue city mayors, the liberal media, and all others who support their radical, violent take over of our nation.

- "We want to remain closed until a vaccine is available". Translation, I know we already have the fake vaccine, but it gives us a good excuse to continue trying to crash the economy before elections.

- "We should have the vaccine available sometime early next year". Translation, had Hillary won, we could have had the deplorables and undesirables vaccinated out of existence by now, and if we try and deliver it now Trump will intervene. Let's wait until early next year sometime after inauguration day. Hopefully, we will have our President in power by then and take over this nation once and for all.

- "Biden is our man". Translation, dumb as an ox, and easily lead and controlled by us.

- "We need to dismantle police departments". Translation: We need our people in power, and current law enforcement interferes with our agenda. Likewise, if we can fire up some anarchy without police presence and force Trump to have to bring in the military, we can make him look like a tyrannical oppressor of the people. This will also make it easier for Sharia law to take root in the neighborhoods of our Moslem friends who share our anti-Protestant sentiments.

- "There may be a resurgence of the corona virus". Translation: We need to fake a resurgence of this just before elections to help ensure mail in voting.

- "The Post office will go bankrupt without a bailout". Translation: If we obtain the bail out money, we can use it to help secure the election. If we do not obtain the bailout, find a way to bankrupt the Post Office so that we can insert an alternate mail in method that will make it easier to intercept and remove the ballots of those known to vote conservative.

- Nancy Pelosi announced she is a devout Catholic. The Dems also announced that Joe Biden is a Catholic. Translation: Catholics, this is our chance to take over Protestant America like we have been trying to do for over 200 years. We have not had an opportunity like this since the time of Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War. It's time to jump on board and vote for our Catholic candidates.

- "We must have mail in voting, in person voting could spread the virus". Translation: Using the same gas pump, and credit card key pads can also spread the virus, but in person voting is much more difficult to defraud.

- "We must eliminate the requirement for ID, and even make it illegal to require a person's ID before being allowed to vote". Translation: ID makes fraudulent voting too difficult to carry out. Let's get rid of it.

- "I'm sorry, but because of Covid 19 you cannot be with your loved one after we admit them to the hospital. Translation: We need to isolate everybody who comes in so that we can screen them for their political views, and eliminate them without you as a witness if they happen to be conservative. Besides, we make about $23,000 every time we murder somebody (via lethal injection) and declare the cause of death to be Covid 19. It is also a way to conveniently eliminate the number of conservative voters, most of who age 50 and older.

- Biden: "We are concerned that Trump may not count all the votes. Translation: We are trying really hard to win the vote by fraud, but Trump has been keeping a step ahead of us so that many of our fraudulent mail in ballots may not be successfully counted.

- The EPA has now authorized the release of genetically modified mosquitos which will be released in the states of Florida and Texas next month. Translation: This is a great way to spread more Covid 19, and maybe some other nasty little germs, more efficiently. Let's set them loose in the Red States, beginning with Florida and Texas - two major electoral states that we need to vote democrat this year. Good job EPA, be sure we do not loose our people in your bureau.

- "Twitter has deleted thousands of accounts registered with Chinese affiliations". Translation: Okay comrades, Trump is beginning to investigate Twitter and these Chinese affiliates could cause many of our key insurrectionists to be exposed. Make sure those accounts are deleted to eliminate any trails and evidence that can lead to or expose our inside people who have been colluding for us with China.

- Oh, by the way (they say with a smile) concerning personal information unnecessarily requested, "Could I have your contact information?" Translation: I see you are a conservative, so I need your contact information so I can add you to our hit list. But don't worry, we won't use your information to track you down to cage you up like an animal for the slaughter unless we succeed in ousting Trump from power. Until then your information is perfectly safe with me. Have a beautiful day :)

Alarming news to liberals, and their liberal solutions:

- The black community under Trump is enjoying the lowest unemployment rates in recorded American history - we are going to start losing votes. Solution: In the name of "Black Lives Matter" and "Antifa", destroy the black neighborhoods that are prospering most, and make sure the black community understands that attempting to leave our plantations to vote Republican will cost them dearly.

- The affordable and widely available Hydroxy Chloroquin (HC) that has been safely used for over 50 years is saving the lives of people who have the corona virus - without the need for our desired vaccine. Solution: We cannot incapacitate and destroy the deplorables and undesirables without our vaccine. Make sure reports come out all over the world declaring HC to be dangerous to take, and convince as many people as you can that taking HC will cause them to die, and that it is something only stupid people do.

- Trump is going ahead with his rallies. Solution: Okay comrades, we put aside the phoney social distancing rules to help ensure the success of our riots, but now Trump is going to start holding rallies, so we need to begin circulating that the Covid 19 is now beginning to spread again, especially in conservative states where Trump is likely to hold his rallies. Be sure to mention that numbers are going up in Florida, Arizona, and Texas which are key states for election day electoral votes.

Statements of the Pope:

- We must refrain from violence. Violence is not the answer. Translation: Oh, oh, it is out now that our Catholic plants - Pelosi and Biden and others, are openly in support of the rioting. Get the Pope to make a statement so nobody suspects the Catholic church through its Jesuit armies are behind this takeover.

- Islam is a religion of peace. Translation: Mr. Pope, most people believe just about anything you say, and many are suspicious about our Islamic co-conspirators. Tell the people that Islam and Sharia law are nothing to fear so our cover isn't blown before the insurrection.

Statement of a Jesuit General:

- In the 1800's the General of the Jesuit army stated, "I rule from France to China, and nobody knows how to do it". Today, about 150 years later, all of the problems plaguing western society today originate from Communist and Islamic regimes located from France to China.

Brothers and Sisters in Yeshua. In case you have not figured it out yet, America's enemies are at war with us, and they are going to do whatever they believe they can get away with and think necessary to overthrow our government and take over our nation.

This has nothing to do with social justice, black lives matter, the right to choose, homosexual rights or anything like this, it has to do with destroying the power of the holy people; Daniel 7:21-25; 8:24; Revelation 12:17; 13:7, so that the anti-Christ can take his throne and rule the world. And right now, America, with its bible believers, citizens who have the right to bear arms, and our Constitution, are restraining the ability of that Wicked One to take his throne.

Be rest assured, that even though President Trump has no doubt been placed here by God to restrain this tide of evil until the appointed time of the False Messiah's arrival. And though I fully expect President Trump to be re-elected, nevertheless, he will be the last president this nation will ever see. And that it is after that which is restraining is taken out of the way that the Wicked One will be revealed; 2 Thessalonians 2:6-8, sometime in the year 2024 (See "Time Line 7" on our website).
